Capt. Fabiano Cypel
Embraer Flight Crew Training Manager
AMFTA Board Director

Fabiano Cypel has been involved with pilot training since 1995, at his first job as flying instructor. He moved to a major airline as an instrument/simulator instructor teaching new first officers.

With commercial airline background and after 10 years flying B737 and EMB145, working as a TRI as well, moved to Embraer in 2006. Since then Fabiano Cypel has travelled around the globe as an OEM instructor pilot supporting many airlines and customers that introduced Embraer E145, E1 and E2 jets into their network.

Meanwhile got a degree in Business Administration – UFRGS, Brazil and acquired two additional ATP licenses besides the one from ANAC (Brazilian CAA), one from FAA-USA and one from EASA – Belgium CAA.

With this broad view in respect to ICAO, FAA and EASA different training requirements and more than 5000 hours of instruction time, Fabiano Cypel has been appointed the team leader for pilots and cabin crew training at Embraer. He has been also nominated the Embraer representative at AMFTA Board.

Fabiano, 47 years old, married and with two children. In addition, of course, as any other Brazilian, a big fan of soccer.
