

BIOGRAPHY

Mark Albert
Director,
Business and Program Management,
Commercial Training Solutions,
Boeing Global Services
AMFTA Board Director & Treasurer

Mark Albert is the director of Business and Program Development within Commercial Training Solutions for Boeing Global Services, responsible for the 777X training program and the development and implementation of Boeing's Competency Based Training and Assessment program. Albert is also the President and Chief Operating Officer of Boeing U.S. Training and Flight Services.

Previously, Albert joined Boeing in 1989. He began working in the Boeing Commercial Airplanes training organization in 1991. Since then Albert has led the implementation of training programs including the 737NG, 787 and 737MAX. Albert also managed Boeing's worldwide training network for commercial pilot and maintainer training. In 2015 Albert led both the training organization and the training business for Boeing Defense Space & Security.